*Please remember that all the guests in the hotel share the amenities to include the kitchenette appliances and the refrigerator. If you are bringing a lot of food items, please bring a cooler for your beverages as we do sell ice. No open flame cooking in the building...grills outside to use.

We are always amazed at the friendships that are formed in the common area as fish stories and a laugh are shared. We also enjoy hearing about your adventures on the water so in the evening come meet everyone in the "Little Red Bar" and share your day.

Thank you! John & Brenda
